

ISLINGTON CENTRE - 5/12/22 - 2pm

Today's theme (by popular demand) - FOOD!!

A grammar exercise (also by popular demand) relating to food

Turn these sentences using the active form into sentences using the passive form in the correct tense -

Example:

This evening, my husband is doing the washing-up.

This evening, the washing-up is being done by my husband.

1. The fox ate the chicken.
2. I am making this soup using all the left-over vegetables.
3. Mary will be serving dinner in the dining room at 7 o'clock.
4. Once the meat is cooked, Juan will prepare the vegetables.
5. We soaked the beans in water overnight to soften them.
6. In the UK we generally drink tea with milk.
7. I stuffed the turkey with a lemon and thyme stuffing.
8. People buy more food from the supermarket than from their local shops.

Oliver! Food, Glorious Food - YouTube

Writing a story together....

On 23rd December, I went to the supermarket to buy the food for Christmas dinner. I had invited three friends.

I planned to cook.....

I needed to buy.....

I took [means of payment - cash/card].

The supermarket was [where?].

How did you get there?

Was the supermarket busy?

Where did you go first?

And then....

Did you find everything you needed?

Did anything happen while you were in the supermarket/any incident?

Where did you pay?

What did you do when you got home?

How long did it take you to cook the meal?

Was the meal a success?